This form shall be completed and signed and shall have been received by the auction house together with its enclosures in the evening before the auction. The auction house reserves the right to admit any bidders to the auction.

Bids made by telephone are carried out by a telephonist present in the auction room. Usually in German and English, if other languages are requested, please let us know.

Our telephonists will contact you about five numbers before the item in which you are interested is called. Items shall be indicated with their lot number and title. In case of doubt, the lot number shall apply, any uncertainties, including those related to transmission, shall be at the bidder's expense.

No guarantee shall be assumed for the handling of bids, except in the event of intent or gross negligence. In particular, we will not be liable for effecting and maintaining telecommunications connections or for transmission errors. Telephone calls may be recorded; the bidder consents to such recording by submitting the application.

Furthermore, the information provided in the applicable catalogue and during the auction and the terms and conditions of auction of the auction house shall apply (www.hampel-auctions.com).

Due to anti-money laundering directives (GWG) we are obliged to verify the identity and address of all bidders. Therefore, we require a copy of a valid official identification document, proof of address and if applicable an extract from the register for legal entities.
