All bids submitted in writing shall be deemed submitted bids during the auction and are processed by the auctioneer in the interest of the buyer. We reserve the right not to accept bids in writing for the auction.

Should more than one bid in writing exist for the same work of art then the bid first received will be accepted, unless a higher bid exists or is made.

A special notification after the end of auction will only occur if a written bid is accepted.

Objects must be listed with number and title. In case of doubt, the catalogue number shall prevail; the bidder shall also be liable for ambiguities during transmission.

This form must be submitted by mail or fax and received by Hampel Fine Art Auctions, filled out completely and unambiguously and signed, at least 24 hours prior to start of the auction. Any changes or cancellations must be received by us at least 24 hours prior to start of the auction.

No responsibility will be accepted for processing the bids, except in the event of malice or gross negligence.

Otherwise all statements made in the catalogue as well as our terms and conditions of auction shall apply which are expressly accepted when the bid is placed.
