This form shall be completed and signed and shall have been received by the auction house together with its enclosures by post, fax or email in the evening before the auction. The auction house reserves the right to admit any bidders to the auction.

Bids made by telephone are carried out by a telephonist present in the auction room. The telephonist uses the German and English languages, if other languages are requested, please indicate this.

We will do our best to comply with your wishes. Please contact our telephonists about 5 numbers before the item in which you are interested is called. Items shall be indicated with their number and title. In case of doubt, the catalogue number shall apply; any uncertainties, including those related to transmission, shall be at the bidder's expense.

Bids may be made by telephone for any items with an estimated price of no less than € 500.00.

No guarantee shall be assumed for the handling of bids, except in the event of intent or gross negligence. In particular, we will not be liable for effecting and maintaining telecommunications connections or for transmission errors.

Telephone calls may be recorded; the bidder consents to such recording by submitting the application.

Furthermore, the information provided in the applicable catalogue and during the auction and the Terms and Conditions of Auction of the auction house, which are displayed in the auction house, printed in the catalogue and published on the website of the auction house under www.hampel-auctions.com, shall apply.

We would also be pleased to send you the Terms and Conditions of Auction upon request.
